1. Special circumstances examinations shall be conducted, if possible, at the same time as supplementary examinations. Please consult the supplementary examination timetable that is available on the notice boards and the TUT web page, or enquire at Student Services.
2. A special circumstances examination shall, subject to the approval of the Registrar or his or her designate, be taken by a student who has been prevented from preparing for the main examination or from taking the main examination, during an examination period, as a result of circumstances beyond his or her control.
3. If a student has been prevented from writing one or more question paper(s) in a subject consisting of more than one (1) question paper(s), the student may take a special circumstances examination only in the question paper(s) concerned. The student shall retain the marks for the question paper(s) written during the main examination.

5. A student shall not take a special circumstances examination in cases where he or she did not read the examination timetable correctly; reacted to unofficial information; or did not arrive in time for a particular examination session, or did not arrive for it at all.
6. A student may, notwithstanding the terms of paragraph 5, submit a written appeal to Student Services for consideration, if that student is of the opinion that his or her case has merit that should be taken into account.
