APPLICATION FORM FOR TRANSPORT ALLOWANCES 2024 DHET BURSARY STUDENTS

Applicants must please note the following:

1. According to the Department of Higher Education and Training (DHET) bursary funding policies and guidelines only students staying at home or those who made their own private accommodation arrangements, will qualify. Students residing in any of the University own, leased and accredited facilities do not qualify for any transport allowances. Strict verification processes will be applied in this regard.
2. Students who decide to move from their home or private non-accredited facilities into any of the University owned, leased or accredited accommodation will only qualify for the accommodation allowances and will be liable for the transport allowances paid until such date.
3. According to the DHET Bursary funding policies and guidelines the maximum amount available for transport allowances is R7875 and should students choose to also utilize University Bus Transport this will be deducted before payment is made.
4. It's important to note that the provision of fraudulent information or the distortion thereof, as well as any corrupt activities by the applicant (student), and / or the parent / guardian will have penalties and consequences, including appropriate legal action.
5. Closing date: 31 July 2024
